

For an Individual

Worthington United Methodist Church
Request for Interment of Scattered Ashes in the Memorial Garden

I have read and agree to abide by the Memorial Garden Policy. On behalf of myself and my heirs, I release the Worthington United Methodist Church, of Worthington, Ohio, its members, its employees, Board of Trustees, and pastors from liability arising out of the operation and administration of the Memorial Garden. I recognize that the Memorial Garden is not a cemetery or columbarium, and as outlined in the Memorial Garden policy, waive all claims to the Memorial Garden.

Applicant's printed name _____

Address _____

Telephone _____ Email _____

Signature of Applicant _____ Date _____

Acknowledged signature: _____ Date _____

Board of Trustees Chairperson

Original request copy is retained by WUMC.

Return a signed copy to the individual.

Individual should give a copy to their Executor and place a copy with their important papers.

Donations are accepted for sustaining of the Memorial Garden

Memorial Garden Policy

Garden Grounds Exclusions

Only Memorial Bricks, approved benches, and cremated ashes will be allowed in the Memorial Garden. There will be no markers, paintings, ornaments, balloons, glass vases, statues, plantings, flowers, wood or metal objects or additional decorations (urns, flags, chimes, flowers, etc.) added to the Memorial Garden. Such objects will be removed from the garden.

Ashes

Cremated remains are to be given to the church in a biodegradable or disposable vessel for scattering in the garden.

Additional exclusions may be added to this document in the future by the trustees.

Right to Alter, Move, or Remove the Memorial Garden

The Worthington United Methodist Church in its sole discretion has the right to remove, relocate or dismantle the Memorial Garden, if the Church deems it is in its best interest. The Church will not incur any liability or obligation resulting from the loss or disturbance of the scattered ashes in the Memorial Garden.

Emergencies or Special Situation

The lead pastor, Board of Trustees, and Leadership Board are authorized to resolve any unique, emergency, and/or emergency or special situation that may arise, and make binding rulings on behalf of the church.

Disclaimer

The Memorial Garden is not a cemetery or a columbarium. The garden is perpetual in nature and is a non-commercial venture that is the property of the Worthington United Methodist Church. No rights or privileges of any nature are deemed or granted to families of those having a Memorial Brick or ashes scattered. All rights are reserved by the Worthington United Methodist Church and its Board of Trustees to make changes, now or in the future, to this policy and to the Memorial Garden.

For Executor or Estate Administrator

Worthington United Methodist Church
Request for Interment of Scattered Ashes in the Memorial Garden

I/we hereby request permission to have the cremated remains of placed in the Memorial garden of Worthington United Methodist Church, Worthington, Ohio. I/we have read the Memorial Garden Policy and agree to abide by them.

Name of Applicant(s) _____

Relation to deceased _____

Address _____

Telephone _____ Email _____

Applicant signature _____ Date _____

Acknowledged signature: _____ Date _____

Board of Trustees Chairperson

Original request copy is retained by WUMC.

Return a signed copy to the applicant.

Donations are accepted for sustaining of the Memorial Garden.

Memorial Garden Policy

Garden Grounds Exclusions

Only Memorial Bricks, approved benches, and cremated ashes will be allowed in the Memorial Garden. There will be no markers, paintings, ornaments, balloons, glass vases, statues, plantings, flowers, wood or metal objects or additional decorations (urns, flags, chimes, flowers, etc.) added to the Memorial Garden. Such objects will be removed from the garden.

Ashes

Cremated remains are to be given to the church in a biodegradable or disposable vessel for scattering in the garden. Additional exclusions may be added to this document in the future by the trustees.

Right to Alter, Move, or Remove the Memorial Garden

The Worthington United Methodist Church in its sole discretion has the right to remove, relocate or dismantle the Memorial Garden, if the Church deems it is in its best interest. The Church will not incur any liability or obligation resulting from the loss or disturbance of the scattered ashes in the Memorial Garden.

Emergencies or Special Situation

The lead pastor, Board of Trustees, and Leadership Board are authorized to resolve any unique, emergency, and/or emergency or special situation that may arise, and make binding rulings on behalf of the church.

Disclaimer

The Memorial Garden is not a cemetery or a columbarium. The garden is perpetual in nature and is a non-commercial venture that is the property of the Worthington United Methodist Church. No rights or privileges of any nature are deemed or granted to families of those having a Memorial Brick or ashes scattered. All rights are reserved by the Worthington United Methodist Church and its Board of Trustees to make changes, now or in the future, to this policy and to the Memorial Garden.